(774) 399-9532

Emily joined Grimes and Company in 2023. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Worcester State University and has a professional background in education and insurance.

As a Client Service Associate, Emily is organized, thorough, and motivated, and she works to support the Client Service Managers by creating and maintaining client records. Her favorite part of working at Grimes is that, "no matter how big or small the task, everyone is willing to help, and always with a smile!"

At home, Emily enjoys spending time with family, friends, and her two dogs. She likes trying new local breweries and restaurants. Emily is always up for learning new hobbies and has taken up golf and snowboarding recently.
