Maria joined Grimes and Company in 2023. She graduated from Emmanuel College as a member of Sigma Tau Delta English Honors Society. She holds a BA in Communications, Media, and Cultural Studies with minors in Information Technology and American Studies.

Maria's 10 years of corporate communications and customer service experience have helped prepare her for her role as a Client Service Manager at Grimes. Her favorite thing about working for Grimes and Company is the comradery that the team members share with each other to accomplish their goals.

Outside of the office, Maria enjoys traveling, relaxing on the beach at Cape Cod, and spending quality time with her family–especially her nieces.
