(508) 986-9979

Sarah uses a strong attention to detail to help onboard and service client accounts. Her favorite thing about Grimes and Company is that everyone works together as a team. She values the relationships she has built here and will cherish them for years to come.

Sarah started her career at Grimes and Company in 2014 as an intern. She officially joined the team shortly after graduating cum Laude from Roger Williams University with a Bachelor of Science. Sarah has assisted the research and data reconciliation teams on multiple projects and served as Client Service Associate prior to her current Client Service Manager role.

Outside of the office, She enjoys hiking and exploring local breweries and wineries.
