(508) 986-9979

Sarah uses a strong attention to detail to help Client Service Managers onboard new clients. She has also assisted the research and data reconciliation teams on multiple projects. Her favorite thing about Grimes and Company is that everyone works together as a team. She values the relationships she has built here and will cherish them for years to come.

Sarah started her career at Grimes and Company in 2014 as an intern. She officially joined the team shortly after graduating cum Laude from Roger Williams University with a Bachelor of Science.

Outside of the office, She enjoys hiking and exploring local breweries and wineries.
