Tracy Ramsey is a Client Service Manager at Grimes & Company, where she plays a key role in supporting clients and ensuring a high level of service across their relationships with the firm. Tracy works closely with clients to understand their needs and help keep their financial plans on track. She especially values the opportunity to build lasting relationships and serve as a trusted resource as clients work toward their goals.

Tracy graduated from Penn State University with a degree in Communication, along with minors in Math and Chemistry. She began her career as an Account Manager in the healthcare industry, where she developed strong organizational and client service skills. Her experience managing client relationships and navigating complex needs translates seamlessly into her work at the firm, where she brings thoughtful attention and care to every interaction.

Outside of work, Tracy enjoys reading, golfing, and exploring home décor projects. She also values spending time with her husband, their son, and their dog, Georgia.
